

New changes to Medi-Cal asset rules mean more people can keep their coverage.

A new law means assets will not be counted for Medi-Cal

- Starting January 1, 2024, assets are no longer counted toward Medi-Cal Eligibility.
- You do not need to report assets, such as bank accounts, property, and vehicles.
- Applications and renewal forms will no longer ask for asset information.
- Income received from property, such as rental income or interest earned from a bank account, will continue to be counted as income.

You can apply for Medi-Cal:

-  IN-PERSON - Go to your local Medi-Cal office.
-  ONLINE - Log in or create an account with BenefitsCal.com
-  BY MAIL - Send to the address on your form.
-  VIA PHONE - Call the Customer Service Center at (866) 613-3777
